

THE GATOR

1945-46

ALMA ~ MATER

Alma Mater called;
And from afar and near we came to her,
A thirst for joy and wisdom's fountain deep
Feign we were to learn from her,
The secrets of the powers that stir
The universe and order keep.

Dear Alma Mater,
Thou hast inspired us.
Thy quest for truth henceforth is ours.
Thy challenge high with purpose inspired us.
Evermore a light-house we behold thy towers.

Nineteen Hundred forty-six going back
To homes where love and pride await us,
May we honor there her shining fame.
Joy in work and play in earnest
Love for God and man create us
Evermore when we recall thy name.

MAISON DE LA

MAISON DE LA

Dedication

FOREWORD

Memory is the treasure-house of the mind wherein the monuments thereof are kept and preserved.-- Fuller.

Lulled in the countless chambers of the brain, our thoughts are linked by many a hidden chain; awake but one, and lo, what myriads rise!--Pope.

Through this first issue of the Gator, the seniors of '46 wish to preserve for you something of the thrill of your high school days. May the pages of this annual carry for you an indelible impression of friends you have known and loved, the places so familiar from long association, the things you've worked for, the games you've won and lost, the fellowship you've enjoyed together, and even the classes you liked and disliked.

As dew to the blossom, as the scent to the rose are those memories to me.--Amelia B. Welby.

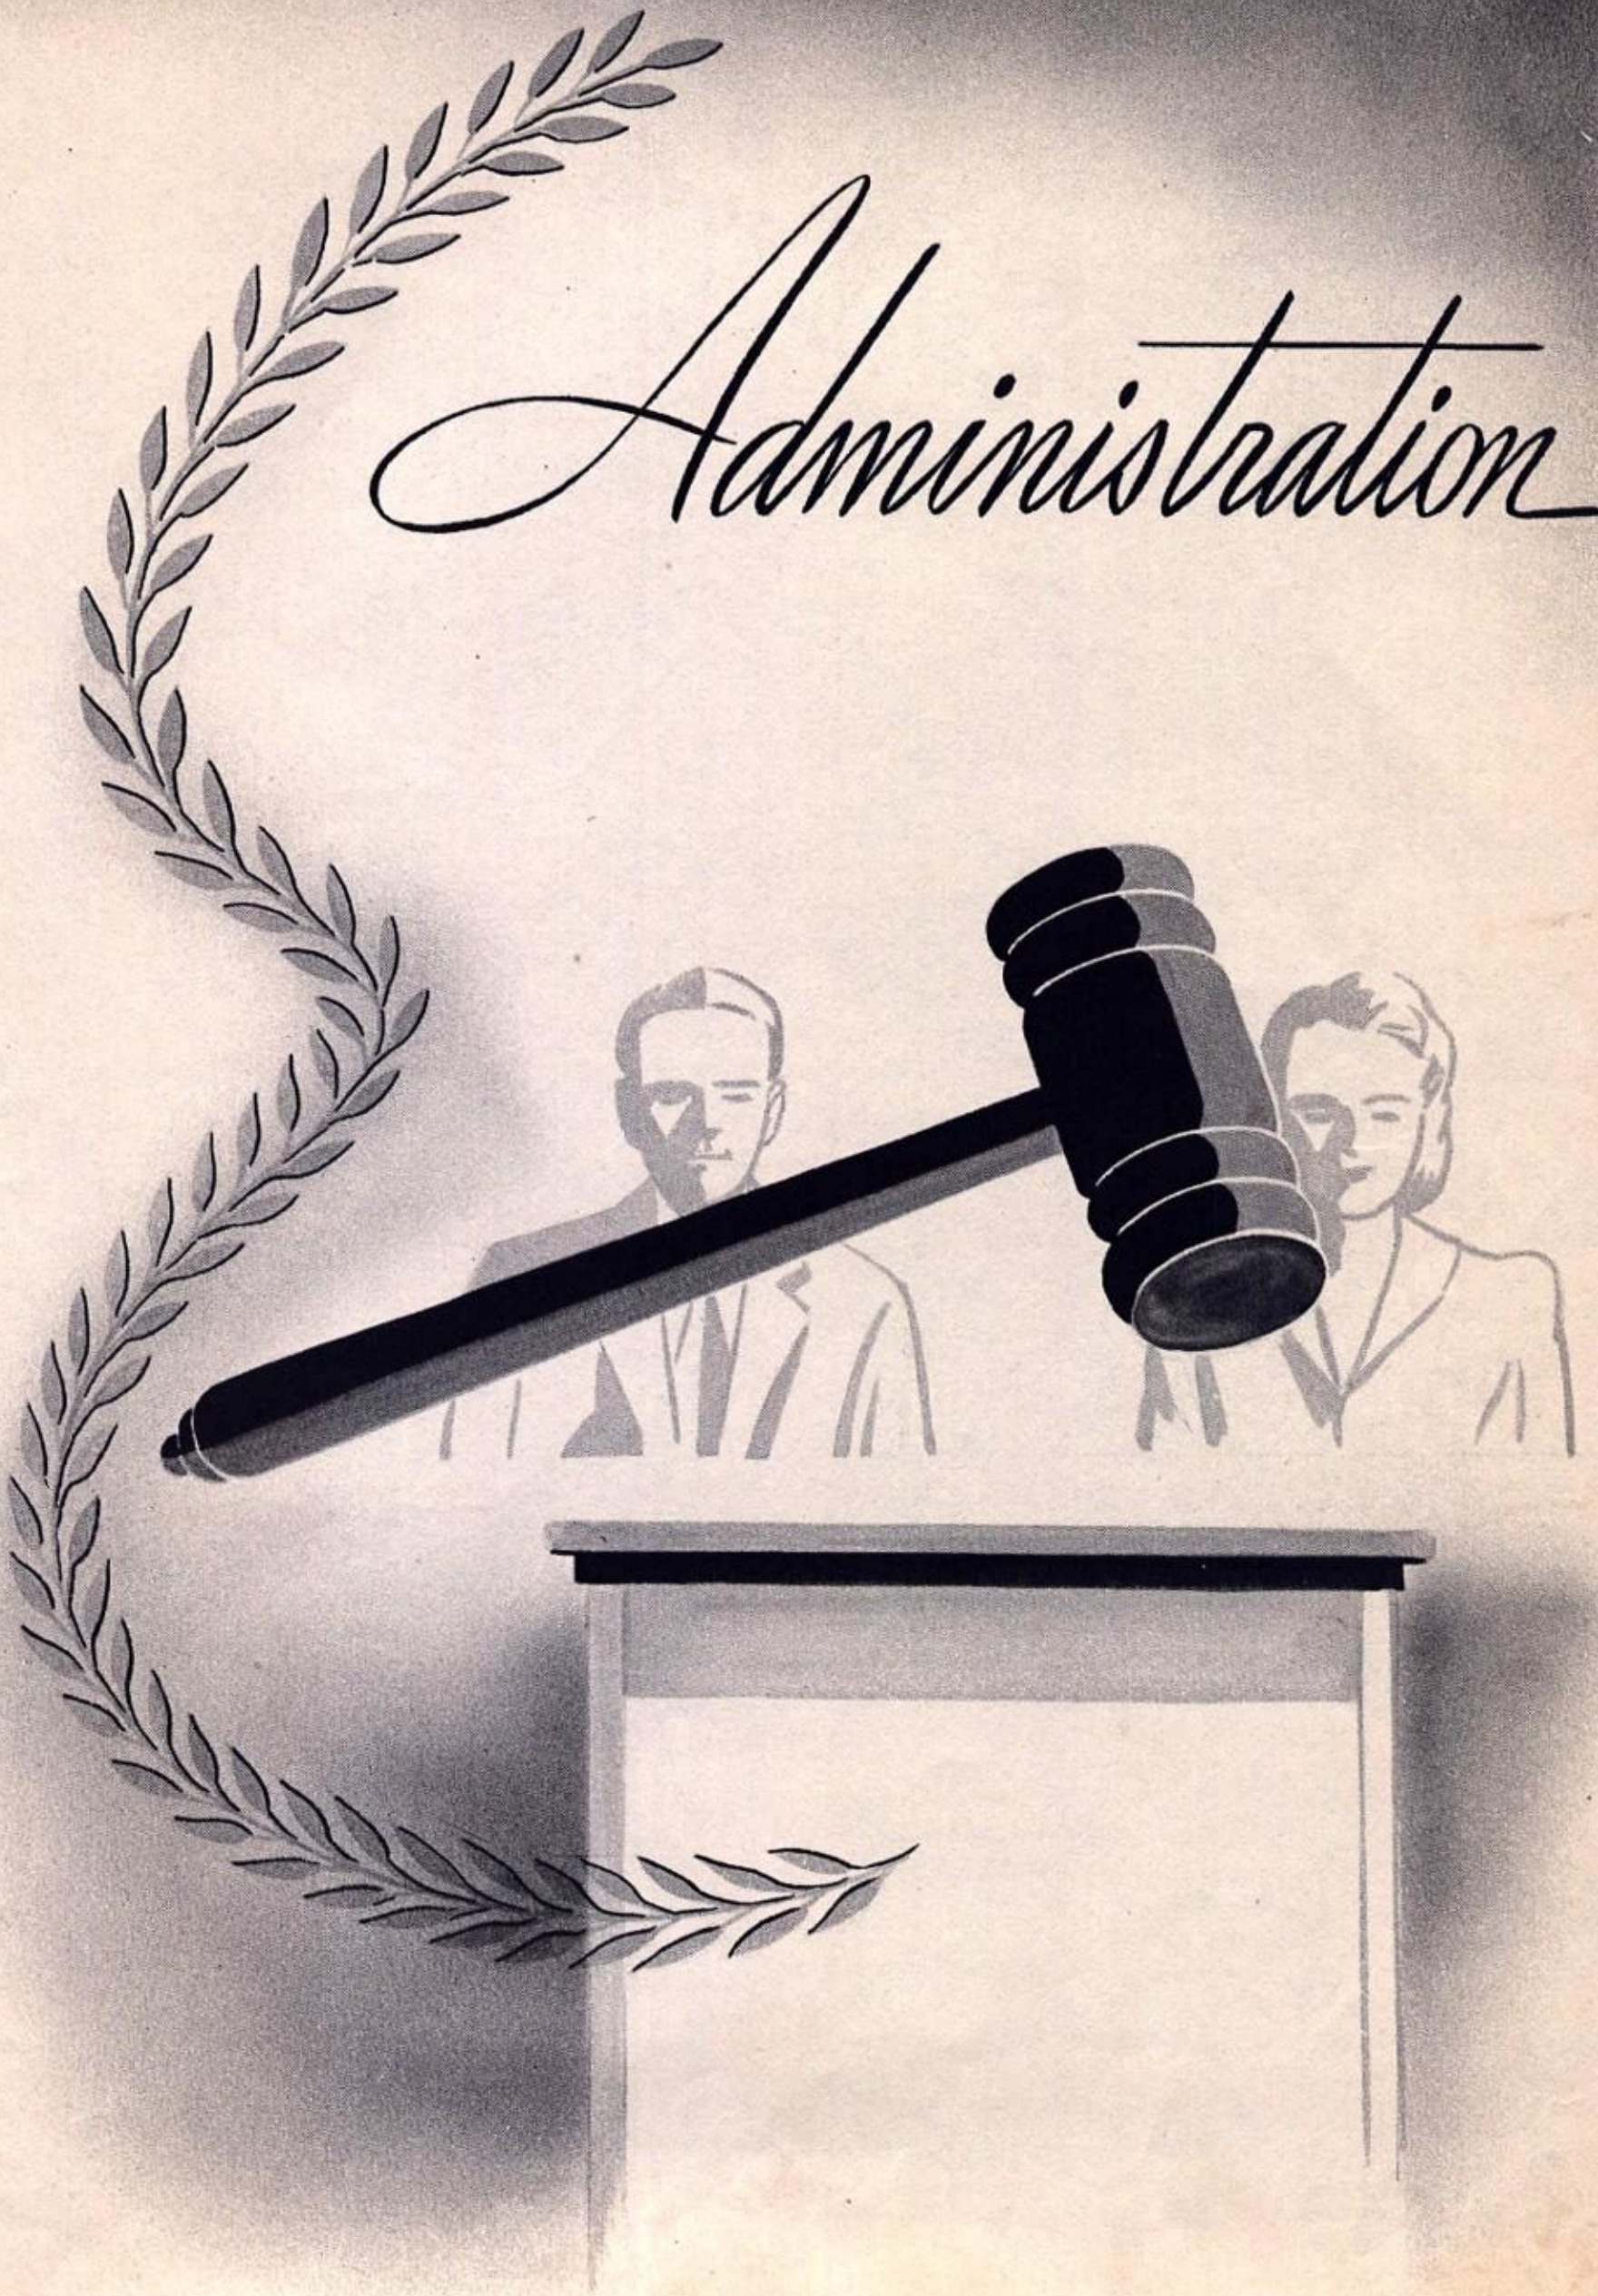

The joys I have possessed are ever mine; out of thy reach, behind eternity, hid in the sacred treasure of the past, but blest remembrance brings them hourly back.--Dryden.
